

Sarah A. Smith

I am pleased that thou art taking the care to re-examine it after an interval of sufficient length to do so freshly - an author under such circumstances is the best critic of his own production.

I feel sure thou wilt do the subject & thyself justice - I am anxious thou should do so just now.

I do not know the style or number of the edition. I would have it neat but cheap enough to give it a wide circulation. Pamphlet form, paper cover - easier distributed & read.

As I told thee, I will

1st sheet about a (washed) cheerfully unite with some of thy friends in B. & P. in protesting thee against loss. Perhaps the N.E. & Y. & Ind. & East-So. Societies will enter into the concern.

I leave for Ohio by way soon, to be gone five weeks - taking in West Ind. & Ohio Yearly Mts. for which I have a minute.

It will just enable me to reach our No. 10th New-My love to thy Mom, Minnie & sister.

Thy friend
Ramon T. King

I am great thanks
