please write me, say 3 or 4 months.
 Our Dept of Agri in N.C. is anxious to introduce Beans in the western part of N.C. & we want a genuine article at a low price - The people have been so grossly deceived by mixtures that they have lost all confidence.
 It is to the interest of the Pennsylvania Agency to send us this lot, & as it is a charitable act on our part to aid the South, I hope they will consider that also.

 Dear Sir,
 I have truly felt that your wish checked in your letter I have telegraphed you today to have it telegraphed, & for them to pay me proceeds when they buy the gold.
 You will please buy the 50 tons of Beans from Ferguson at $60, & ship by your line in the terms you kindly propose, in lots, as you can get it, as large as possible.
 I fear there is a combination to buy up & control the market & throw us upon second hands.
 If you find there is a ^{risk} of receiving the 50 tons from Fer-
