

will be over run all winter with applicants.

In giving the plain coats to the col^d people, I presume, see that they change the collars - the over coats will answer as they are.
I am sorry not to have some better things but every one to whom I applied had given away what they had.

Mr. Sales send 10 pounds mixed Candies - 3 lb bunch raisins & 3 of soft shell almonds - ~~the Candies~~ for equal distribution among your children, Dr. Tomlinson, & other boys. I mean equal as to children, not families.
I want Emma, Sally & Angus & Samuel counted in as children this time.

Dr. T is to cure all the sick ones free of charge. The sick Teacher to have a charge. These are from me - not the ass.

Received of Mr. Sales the sum of $20.00 for the purchase of clothes for the poor. I am very much obliged to you.
Yours truly,
J. J. Tomlinson

the poor. Martha Tomlinson Past or Secy.

Sales send in same box some old clothes that will keep the poor warm - tho' they are old & worn.

I will thank thee to distribute them thyself - The vests & pants are good if cleaned - so is one of the Ladies Sacks. Do it quietly for if it gets out there
