

our account. There is always danger in selling goods without capital in the business.

With the new arrangement of the farm lease, I trust ~~with~~ ^{can be made} gradual payment to Whitman it will work out right. I hope thy account for New England implements is not in arrears also.

I need hardly assure thee of the deep interest I feel in thee temporally & spiritually. I have always tried to show this in our intercourse in many ways - & with thy new start in a life given to the Lord I doubt not he will bless thee & thine.

Truly Thine
W. F. King

Dear Mrs

11 18 2

I have carefully considered thy request & regret to say that it is not convenient for me to comply with it. The case is virtually round up & owes me $1800, with the promise to sustain I made numerous debts that will require at least $1000 more.

I have not $6 in Bank at present & my trip to Europe will keep me very short of money for the next six months.

I hope thy friend will wait till next summer for thee.
I apprehended this trouble & spoke to thee about it, when thou undertook ^{it} upon thee.

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher but appears to contain similar content to the other page.

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher but appears to contain similar content to the other page.