

Kersey a private family to board with.

Fourth day 27th again left Greensborough early in order to attend New Garden No Meeting which was small but fine. Many Members present besides the Scholars from the boarding School, My Minute being read opened the ^{way} for the introduction of my mission among them after some interchange of sentiment. The Meeting ^{appointed} Joshua Linsey, Uriah Macy & John Carter a committee to confer with me in relation to the establishing a School among them and also to aid & assist as way may open. In the afternoon was in each of the School rooms hearing Scholars recite which we thought did well with some exceptions. In the evening requested they might all be collected in one room for reading. Joseph Moores & myself addressed them briefly by way of encouraging the Scholars to do their whole duty.

28th Fifth day Left early in company with our dear friend John Carter for Dover the Meeting. finding the roads very bad & the mud deep we were a little behind the time. Joseph Moore & myself both had service in this meeting, to some relief after which

The Meeting read my Minute which introduced the Subject of my being with them. The Meeting took hold of the Subject and appointed Thomas J. Benbow, Lewis Shaw, Leach to confer with & assist me in endeavoring to establish a School among them. We returned to the Boarding School with our friend John Carter, in the evening. Joseph Moore attending the reading in the boys department, and I in the girls. room I had some little service.

29th Returned to Greensborough this morning to attend to such matters as requires our attention. Found three boxes directed to my care had arrived and Jesse Wheeler the United States assessor very kindly offered me the privilege of storing them away in his room without cost. I accepted of the offer and had them put into his room, and in the afternoon of the 30th we left Greensborough again for Springfield taking the cars for high point 15 miles. then in a wagon to Allen H. Townlinson where we were well cared for.

First day 31st Attended Springfield meeting which
