

Numbers of its members, and learning from them that Rich Bundy in Minster among them who has a wife & four children who are needy, would be glad of some clothing & Joseph Copeland who is in poor health not able to labor has a wife and four children some clothing would be acceptable to them, All these cases is referred to the careful consideration of the association.

26th Rode upwards of Sixty Miles to this neighborhood

28th I also visited a School in the neighborhood of Black Creek & ~~Montezuma~~ Meeting house taught ^{by} Austin White who reported sixteen children on his list, five members & 4 entitled to the same privilege, only 9 in School to day, who intends closing at the end of the term, but expects to open a School in his own house and would like to have the use of the books expects to have one child a member which will need assistance and perhaps some others.

3rd Moor visited a School near to Poweston Meeting house taught by Samlth Corson who reported seventeen children on his list, only nine in attendance to day. The average is reported to be fifteen, eight of whom are members. ^{neither of these schools are doing much good} also visited a colored School taught by Oliver Roberts of New Hampshire, which numbers about one hundred children. This School appears to be in a prosperous condition.

My Friends John Fretlow & Jonathan Cox called my attention to the condition of two young women by the names of Harriet Harris & Martha Johns Harris whose circumstances is very much straitened the first by the depreciation of North Carolina funds, the other by the Estate of her parents being nearly exhausted. They are both anxious to have more education and are not able to pay for it, the above named friends thought the association of Baltimore Friends would be willing to send each of them one year to West Garden Boarding School being members of the Half year Meeting of Virginia.

I also requested Joseph Moore to inquire into the circumstances of Daniel Cox of Holly Spring who has a wife & three children who I learned had been very much stripped, and was thought
