

then might extend the time of schools two months, we of course had in view the usual salary of about $25.00 per month. As we have sent some scholars from that school to New Garden, $50.00 is all we can possibly subscribe to the school itself, & is really more than we ought to grant, considering how much greater are the needs of other neighborhoods.

thy friend

John C. Thomas Secy.