

To James Hack Tuke
Trust. of N. Carolina Educational Fund.

In submitting a statement for the past five months, we would remark that your aid came just in time to be of the greatest assistance for the present scholastic year. Two of our Association, in company with Allen Jay, our former efficient superintendent, attended North Carolina Yearly Meeting, and united with the Educational Committee of that body in appointing H. L. Blair, an experienced teacher, Superintendent of Education for the scholastic term of five months then beginning. His salary & travelling expenses have been paid by money received by our Association from other sources than yours. His duties have been performed to our entire satisfaction, and we hope to secure his services again next Fall. He visited each neighborhood of Friends, and, after making every effort to develop increased interest in education among the people, he reported to us the state of the school, if any, the number of children; what a suitable teacher would cost per month; what
