Dear friend

Thine of the 11th at hand & carefully noted. As many of ^{our} friends are just leaving town, or have already gone that it will be impossible to hold a meeting of the Association this month. Those who are here think it would be well if thou would make up a memorandum of how much will probably be needed for each branch of thy work; say, so much for training teachers, so much for teaching children, also for relieving destitution, &c. so that when the Association meets, which it will as soon as possible, it may be in a position to act intelligently, and decide what branches to aid & how much.

thy sincere friend
