Dear friend

Thine of the 3rd duly recd.
I think $175. should be given as the amt. paid by B. Ass. for Woodland Academy, & a remark at the foot of the report that $75. was for desks.
There certainly must be a mistake in S. Hartley's as to the amt. he received from B. Ass. I only knew of $230. from that source, as stated in my messent thee on 17th ult. It would be well to inquire into the matter & have it corrected.

Is it worth while for thee to report schools under care of Friends where there are less than five Friends' children attending them? Are not some of those reported of this kind?

There are so many worthy individuals exceeding education that the small fund at our disposal would be exhausted in helping them, & the great mass of scholars now attending school would get nothing. Our object is to so use the
