

through sometimes a larger or a smaller proportion is given, as circumstances may indicate. By thus granting only what seems absolutely necessary, the money has been instrumental in furnishing meeting-houses to a great number of Friends in very limited circumstances; some of whom would not have undertaken to build without aid, and others could only have completed a meeting house under a burden of debt.

Baltimore
5th Mo. 1st 1885

Francis T. King

John C. Thomas

To
Isaac Robson
J. B. Braithwaite
James Mack Tucker