Since our last report dated 10mo 16th 1852 we have effected but few sales, and though the stock of books on hand was small, it has proved more than sufficient for the demand

The sales for the past 12 months have been 6 copies of Barclay's Apology & 2 of No Cross no Crown remaining on hand 6 Sewell, History 3 George Fox Journal 7 Barclay's Apology 11 No Cross no Crown 15 John Wootman's Journal 3 Barclay's Catechism 13 Penn's Rise & progress & key in all S.V. volumes which includes 6 copies in the hands of a Member of the Committee who resides in the County. The remainders are at the house of the undersigned No 45 North Charles St.

The balance of Cash on hand is $33. 13/100
