The following communication from North Carolina Meeting for Sufferings was produced & read

At a meeting for Sufferings of North yearly Meeting held the 4th of 11 mo 1853

A communication was received from the Meeting for Sufferings of New England yearly Meeting on the subject of an Epistolary communication between that Meeting & Philad.
& Ohio yearly Meetings being suspended

After a time of deep & consideration thereon this Meeting thought proper to suggest through the meetings for Sufferings of New York, Baltimore & Indiana, the propriety of their uniting with our yearly Meeting in the appointment of Committee to endeavor to visit Philadelphia, New England & Ohio yearly Meetings; or take such other measures as way may open in the future with a view of effecting a reconciliation and restoring that harmony that should exist amongst the members of our Society everywhere. In order that the long established correspondence of those Meetings may be resumed

Extracted from the Minutes of the Meeting
