James Carey, Jr. and Thomas MacKenzie,
Committee-

Dear Friends:-

I am advised by Joseph E. Janney that the title to the Ashton Meeting House property was originally put in the names of the Trustees, according to the law of Virginia. The Maryland law requires an incorporated body to hold property.

I think all the original Trustees have died and the property is held by their successors. Joseph Janney asked me to communicate this to the proper committee, and if so, and the change was necessary, to arrange to have the Meeting incorporated, so that the title to the property might be valid.

Yours very truly,

RJ/KR
