A stated meeting of the Permanent Board of Baltimore Yearly Meeting (Hornwood) was held at Baltimore this date, seventeen members being present.

The minute pertaining to the proposed visit of Dorothy G. Harris of the Friends Historical Library of Swarthmore College was read and Eleanor Richardson reported that Dorothy G. Harris had made the visit and had microfilmed records of the Baltimore Monthly Meeting.

The Clerk reported the expiration of term of service of the following members of the Permanent Board: J. Elliott Han, Jr., Eleanor Richardson, Bertha E. King, Joseph E. Green, Margaret H. Winslow, Milly Stephenson, Theodore P. Souder, Mary E. Hopkins, and a vacancy due to the death of Vernon L. Brown. These vacancies have been acted on by the Nominating Committee of the Yearly Meeting.

The Memorials of Vernon L. Brown and Howard M. Hoge were received and the Clerk was instructed to forward them to the Clerk of the Yearly Meeting to be read at the session the following day.

There was discussion regarding the sale several years ago of the Deer Creek Meeting property. The Clerk was instructed to make a minute recording this fact as well as the more recent sale of the Ashton Meeting House and property to Montgomery County, Md.
The Clerk was instructed to send Insurance Questionnaires to the various monthly meetings and report on same at the next meeting of the Board.
