

Read in
y. m. v. and file

32

Albert G. Robinson
(August 2, 1889 - January 27, 1960)

Albert G. Robinson, a birthright member of Hopewell Monthly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends, was born at "Glebe Farm", Clearbrook, Frederick County, Virginia.

Except for the years at Wilmington College, Albert G. Robinson's entire life was spent in the community of his birth as a farmer and orchardist. With Elma, his beloved wife, the home was a place of gracious living.

Those who have best known Albert G. Robinson are conscious of the devotion of his life and the Divine Source from which he drew his strength. A keen sense of humor and an interest in little children and young people commanded their love and respect. To his employees, he was a friend. He is greatly missed in the home, community, and Meeting, but his influence will live on in the lives of others who have been guided by the good example of straightforward living.

On January 27, 1960, Albert G. Robinson "entered into the Glory of His Lord and Master."

Approved at the Business Session of Potomac Quarterly Meeting, United,
Fifth Month, 15th, 1960, at Clearbrook, Virginia.

W. Herbert Brown, Clerk

Ina Hicks, Recording Clerk