Baltimore 10th month 5th 1885

The Friends Sewing Society rendered an account of the manner in which the money granted to them last year had been expended.

The Finance Committee was instructed to invest $2000, in addition to the amount appropriated 5th mo. 11th 1883, in such first class securities as they may approve of, and reduce the cost of the West Shore Bonds by that amount.

The Womens Industrial Exchange reported the appropriations of $300 made to that institution as being in fact.

Maryville Normal School reported use made of money granted last year, and asked for a similar one this year. The Society was instructed to correspond with them in regard thereto, and ascertain under whose
