An application from Free Sunday Breakfast Assoc. was referred to Charity Comm. to investigate

It having been brought to the attention of the Board that the $114,500 par value of Bonds now held by the Society have a market value of over $124,000 and that probably there was no longer a necessity to make further investments to protect the original capital from impairment, upon motion of Jas. Carey Jr. the Pres., Secty. & Treas. were requested to report to a future meeting the amount of Net income received and also the amounts paid in the past on account of Education, Charity, and Books & Tracts, and whether in their judgment it is advisable to continue the accumulation of funds, or to enlarge the scope of relief given

The Meeting then adjourned
