

No. 2-

The Educational Committee reported on the various schools which we have heretofore assisted, and stated that Belvidere Academy was no longer under the charge of Friends, though their influence was large in the school and many were among the patrons. All appropriations were deferred until the next Meeting, when full and more concise reports are expected.

On recommendation of the Committee, the following appropriations were made:

An additional loan to Archibald L. Riddick, to enable him to complete his course at Guilford College, said loan to have insurance policy or endorsement.	$100.00
Loan to Josiah White, Belvidere, N. C. for his son, David, if desired, to aid him to enter the Freshman class at Guilford College.	50.00
Robert G. Hoffman, to aid him at the Technological School of J. H. U.	50.00
John H. Janney, to aid him at the Medical School of J. H. U.	50.00
Ellen T. Raiford, to assist her at Guilford College-	25.00

The following appropriations were made, to be paid through the Alliance of Charitable and Social Agencies:

Federated Charities-	$200.00
Friendly Inn Association-	50.00
Prisoners Aid Society-	25.00

On motion, the Finance Committee was instructed to audit the Treasurer's accounts.

The Meeting then, on motion, adjourned.

Richard White
Secretary
