

At a ^{Quarterly} meeting at the house of Samuel Chaswell Harris Creek 6th day 12th mo: 1711

William Duffton brought a paper of Circumstances to this meeting w^{ch} was Read in the meeting & sent to the womens meeting & the advice of this meeting is that it be Read at the meeting at Harris Creek next if house on some first day of the week & to be made further publick as friends may for the future see most

This meeting taking into Consideration the matter of our deceased friend Joseph Harringtons Orphan & understand that Daniel Kelings seems uneasy under the Care & trouble of the Orphan & that Concern the meeting have Considered that it signified to him as from this meeting as he has not administered on that Concern: if he be not freely willing to take the Care of the Orphan & the estate & be accountable to the meetings of friends for the same w^{ch} the profits or losses thereof that these friends will put it into the hand of some other friend or friends that may be willing so to do. he is desired to send his answer to the next meeting at West River
