

At a quartley meeting Held at West River ¹⁴ Day of 4th 8th 1759 the Buosiness occurring there to will appear as followeth.

Those friends Appointed by our Several Monthly meetings to attend this Meeting all appeared & produced the following Accot^s that from West River Monthly Meeting for worship & discipline are constantly kept on their appointed seasons the Buosiness thereof transacted in some good degree of brotherly Love & Condescension & the weakly meetings there belonging are mostly kept on their appointed seasons & where things are a miss Care is taken for Amendment & Care is taken in Regard to widows & orphans

By Accot^s from Gunpowder Monthly Meeting it appears that Meetings for worship & discipline are constantly kept on their appointed seasons altho some of these first days & weak days meetings are not so well attended as might be wishd for love & unity subsists in a good degree amongst friends & where things are a miss Care is taken for Amendment Care is taken of Widows & orphans & Visiting of families not under friends Care.

Agreeable to the Advice of our last yearly Meeting Advising our several meetings to proceed to a Collection for the youse of our friends of
