

232
With the following Act. that meetings for worship & discipline have been constantly kept since last meet. One day except occasioned by bad weather it appears a good degree of love and unity subsists amongst friends & friends care is for the poor as also for widows & orphans

It appears ~~to the meeting~~ friends have not brought brought up those suffering regular to this meeting the meeting advises that friends may be more careful to lay them before the quarterly meeting preceding the our next yearly meeting on the Eastern shore

It being proposed to this meeting to have liberty or allowance to hold meetings for neagu which this meeting solemnly & weightly considered after which it appears to be the sense of this meeting that it give as business from this meeting to our next yearly meeting for approbation

The business of this meeting not being accomplished it adjourns to tomorrow at ten o'clock

The meeting met according to adjournment
Adjoins to the further service of said meeting

The representatives being called they all appeared the queries recommended by our yearly meeting have been read & answered in this meeting, this meeting appoints ~~the~~ Cole & Mordica Brown of John to assist the women friends in correcting these minutes of the quarterly meeting in order for recording

This meeting appoints to attend our ensuing yearly meeting Henry Wilson John Hopkins Sam^l Hopkins James Wood & Jacob Scott Henry Despoink & make report thereof to our next quarterly meeting
Concludes -

A quarterly meeting held at West River
1st day of 4th 1763

The several friends appointed to attend as representatives being called all appeared & produced to this meeting the following Act which sheweth that our monthly meetings for worship & discipline are constantly kept on their appointed seasons the business thereof transacted in a good degree of love & concord the weekly meetings thereto belonging are also for the most part kept on the days appointed & by Act. Some of them appear to be pretty well attended but in some others there appears too great a neglect. Love in a good degree subsists amongst friends & friends care is for the poor as also for widows & orphans

Report being made to this meeting that the several friends appointed by our last quarterly meeting to attend the service of our last yearly meeting held at this place did all attend & that they were & advised with a good & satisfactory meeting throughout its several sittings. The queries have been read & answered in this meeting

This meeting ^{appoints} representatives to attend the service of our next yearly meeting to be held on the Eastern shore our friends Jacob Scott Joseph Richardson Thomas Smith John Hopkins & make report thereof to our next quarterly meeting