

2nd
A considerable number of friends are careful to maintain love and unity, forbearing backbiting and spreading evil reports, discourages and when differences arise endeavours are used to end them.

9th Offenders are dealt with as they come to our knowledge in a good degree as pointed out in the queries.

The Philadelphia Virginia and Carolina Epistles, were read in this Meeting. ~~Letters from the London and Dublin Directors were also read.~~ Forward copies to each Monthly Meeting. — The friend appointed to forward the extract of the yearly Meeting respecting the black people, as also the concern of our last Quarterly Meeting informs she has complied therewith.

No other business this Meeting concludes.

At a Quarterly Meeting held in Baltimore the 4th of 5th Month 1807

Representatives from the several Monthly Meetings are

Indian Spring Gunpowder

Deborah Thomas Mary Kink
Sarah Thomas Catherine England
Sarah Morgan Mary Taylor
Betty Price

Deer Creek ^{Levors}

Baltimore

Mary Will
Rachel Local
Margaret Howland
Cecander Willits

Susanna Judge Jun^r
Betty Henry
Charlotte Nalk
Cather Buckman

Representatives present except one.
The queries have been read, with written answers ~~from~~ from each of our monthly Meetings to the first second and ^{3rd} queries, from which the following summary was collected

1st All our Meetings have been held, tho' thinly attended at times (except one small meeting from which no accounts have been received) the kind really observed, unbewoming behaviour in Meeting mostly avoided.