

1st Meetings, unbecoming behaviour generally guarded against, the hour of meeting, nearly observed by most

2nd Friends maintain a good degree of love toward each other, tale bearing and detraction discouraged by most, no apparent differences

3rd A considerable number of friends are concerned by example and precept to educate their children, and those under their care in plainness of speech deportment and apparel, to guard them against reading pernicious books, and the corrupt conversation of the world and encouraging them in reading the holy scriptures, the many are deficient in these particulars —

4th Friends appear mostly clear of the unnecessary use of spirituous liquors frequent taverns or places of diversion moderation and temperance in a good degree observed

5th The necessities of the poor have been inspected and some relief afforded — some attention is paid to the school education of their children, yet one report notes a deficiency therein —

6th Nothing appears, but that friends are mostly careful to bear a testimony against an hireling Ministry, Oaths, military services clandestine trade, prized goods, and lotteries

17
7th Friends appear generally careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage, punctuality is observed in fulfilling of contracts and no deficiency appears in the latter part of this query

8th Friends appear mostly careful to bear a testimony against slavery, — in one instance the husband is not a member — those under our care, who have had their freedom secured provided for — and some attention paid to their school learning

9th A good degree of care is observed in our dealing with offenders, to feel after the spirit recommended and to avoid partiality and unnecessary delay

We appoint Mary Moore, Deborah Stabler, Mary Kirk, Ruth Matthews, Ann Burges, Lydia Coale, Frances Hopkins, Elizabeth Brown, Martha Carey, and Mary Tyson as our representatives by whom we send £ 37 .. 19 toward the yearly meeting ^{at} ~~where~~ — and are desirous to attend the yearly meeting by whom we send £ 37. 19 ^{to}

No further business this Meeting concludes