

Indian Spring monthly meeting, have ~~complied with the requisition of last quarter~~ by forwarding to this meeting a reason for their omission, —

The subject relative to the establishment of a meeting within the verge of Little Falls preparative meeting was referred for further consideration to next Quarter

The Committee on the request of Gunpowder monthly meeting for the establishment of a monthly meeting at Little Falls, produced the following report, which was read, and referred for the consideration of next Quarter, and the subject continued under the same friends care

We of the Committee appointed to attend the Monthly meeting of Gunpowder, and the preparative meeting constituting the same, and judge of the propriety of establishing a new Monthly meeting, to be composed of the members constituting Little Falls preparative meeting, agree to report, that most of our number attended the preparative at Little Falls, and all except one, the preparative and Monthly meeting, at Gunpowder, and after a free communication of sentiments, are united in judgment that it may be right that a monthly meeting be held agreeably to this request,
