

a reason assigned for one.

The 1st, 2nd and 9th queries with their respective answers from our monthly meetings, were read and considered in this, which are in substance as follows

1st ^{Ans} All our meetings (except one small branch from which no account has been received) have been kept up, and generally attended by the most of our members on first days, some deficiency acknowledged in afternoon and week days, the hour of meeting nearly observed, and no unbecoming behaviour to remark.

2nd Friends mostly careful to maintain love towards each other in a good degree as becomes our christian profession, talebearing, and detraction discouraged, and when differences arise, endeavours are used to end them.

9th ^{Ans} Endeavours are used to deal with offenders in a good degree answerable to the query.

The friends appointed, propose Grace Knose for clerk and Rachel Mason a servant with which the meeting unites.

The meeting concludes.
