

The first, second and ninth Queries with Answers thereto from the several Monthly meetings were read, from which the following summary was collected and approved.

Summary

1st Answer.

All our Meetings for worship and Discipline have been held (except Cliffs from which there is no account) and attended by a considerable number of our members. The hour nearly observed by most friends. Unbecoming behaviour generally avoided.

2nd

We believe love is maintained in a good degree towards each other, as becomes our Christian profession. — Talebearing and distraction mostly discouraged. — No apparent differences.

3rd

Care is taken to deal with offenders neatly as the query requires.

Certificates for Our beloved friends Elizabeth Hunt, and Mary Walton from the monthly meetings to which they belong were read, which with their company and labours of love were truly acceptable. — Thanks for each of them were produced by men friends — and read — which the clerk ~~was~~ directed to sign.

The committee appointed to attend the monthly meetings likely to compose the new Quarterly meeting produced the following report, which was read and united with.

We of the committee appointed on the subject of a new Quarterly Meeting to be composed of Nottingham, Deer Creek and Little Britain Monthly Meetings, after having attended the Mo. meetings in company with most of the Committee from the Western Quarter, and on conferring with them, the Committee were united in judgment that the request should be granted, which we submit to the meeting.

12th mo. 8th 1817.

William Brown
Daniel Price
Amos Smith
Samuel McConnell
Eli Matthews
William Husband
Roger Brooke
Hugh Balderston
John Jewitt
Vilas Warner
Jane Brown
Rebecca Matthews
Betty Genny
Hannah Marsh
Mary Brooke
Rebecca Smith
Deborah Stabler.