Who were present except one, who was prevented by indisposition

The 1st, 2nd, and 9th queries with answers from each of monthly meetings were read and the following summary selected therefrom

as nearly representing our state

1st Ans^r All our Meeting (except one at Clifton) have been ~~held~~^{held} ~~held~~^{held}, and attended by a considerable part of our members; no unbecoming behaviour to remark, and the hour of meetings nearly observed

2nd Ans^r Many friends appear to maintain love toward each other as becomes our Christian profession, talebearing and detraction mostly discouraged, and when differences arise endeavours are used to end them.

9th Ans^r Offenders are dealt with nearly answerable to the query.

The epistles referred from last quarter were read to satisfaction, and the clerks directed to transmit copies thereof to our several monthly meetings

Mary James, Rebecca Proctor, Martha Carey, Elizabeth Evans, Sarah Ellicott, Rachel M Mott, Hannah Hopkins, Mary M Price, and Dorothy Brown were appointed to consider of suitable friends to propose to our ensuing quarter, for clerk and assistant.

The committee respecting the Clifton meeting reported that since last quarter
