

is Christ" and the "Lo there is Christ" and thereby weakening their hands, in countenancing an hireling ministry - Believing that the gospel is the free gift of God, we cannot consistently take part in any other.

A solicitude was likewise felt that friends may not be found wanting in tender sympathy and in needful care in promoting the education of those children, whose Parents, encompassed with difficulties, have not the means in their power.

The situation of the coloured children in Friends families, claimed the attention of the meeting, and a tender feeling was excited for that neglected part of the human family, and friends were exhorted to adhere to the injunction of our blessed Lord, to do unto others, as we would they should do unto us.

Extracted from the minutes of Baltimore Yearly Meeting of Women friends held by adjournments from the 15th to the 20th of the 10th mo 1821 And signed on behalf thereof by Rachel Mason Clerk

P.S. The discouraging prospects held out by the committee of Fair Hill Boarding School for want of scholars exercised the Yearly Meeting with desires that our members may be animated with more lively concern in promoting its welfare, by sending their children who are of a suitable age to partake of the adtages which a guarded education holds out to the youthful mind.

The committee to assist the Clerks to revise and transcribe the Minutes, reported it was accomplished.

One of the friends appointed to the care of Clifton meeting reported that part of the committee had visited said meeting since last quarter - they were continued to further service as way may open.

An extract from the minutes of the Yearly Meeting of Men friends was read, and from a view of the many sorrowful deviations from the simplicity and purity of those principles professed by us, ^{men's quarters} ~~that~~ appointed a committee to attend our several Monthly Meetings in order to administer strength as they may be enabled to repair the breaches made within our borders, and this Meeting, under a similar exercise appointed Martha Carey Ann Poultney, Mary Gillingham, Mary Matheson, Mary D. Price, Mary Cowman, Mary Brooke, Judith Preston, and Betty Tenny to co-operate with them therein.

No further business