

with the answers from the Monthly Meetings, & the following summary answers adopted.

Ans. 1. All our meetings for worship & discipline have been duly held, except 8 meetings for worship and one for discipline. Most of our members attend those held on First day morning, but those on First day evening & in the middle of the week continue to be neglected by many. One report states that the attendance of the mid-week meeting is satisfactory & encouraging. Unbecoming behavior has been avoided, with slight exception in one report.

Ans. 2. Friends appear to maintain love towards each other becoming our Christian profession. Tale-bearing & detraction are discouraged. We know of no differences amongst us.

Ans. 10. Care is taken to deal with offenders impartially, & in the spirit of meekness and love.

The condition of Hopewell Monthly Meeting was brought to our serious consideration, & commended to the notice of the Yearly Meeting's Pastoral Committee.

who were present, except 2, for the absence of whom reasons were given. John D. Wright, who was present from Hopewell, informed this meeting that a report was forwarded by mail from that Monthly Mtg which has failed to reach us in time.

The 1st, 2nd & 10th Queries were read, with the answers from the Monthly Meetings, as far as heard from, & the following summary answers adopted.

1st Ans. All our meetings for worship & discipline have been duly held. Our First-day morning & mid-week meetings are punctually attended by most of our members when circumstances permit; though one report says "not so punctually as would be desirable". The attendance of First-day evening meetings is very small. Unbecoming behavior is avoided.

2nd Ans. Friends appear to have love one to another in accordance with our
