

way opens, & to use efforts to increase the attendance of the Quarterly Meeting, report that after careful consideration it seemed best to take no action at this time. The committee was united in the belief that the Yearly Meeting would be the proper place to bring the matter up for further consideration.

On behalf of the committee,

A. Morris Carey,
John C. Thomas, Joseph P. Elliott,
Jas. E. Underhill, Edw. L. Palmer,
Chas. J. Thomas, Alfred P. Edge, Saml.
R. Meave, Joseph H. Jewett, Saml. N.
Brown, Wm. Piggott, Roger Brooke, & Chas.
R. Hartsorne, were appointed to attend the ensuing Yearly Meeting as our Representatives, & report to our next meeting.

The meeting then went into joint session with women Friends, and a memorial of our late dear friend Mary P. Griffith, prepared by Hopewell Monthly Meeting, was read & approved & directed to be forwarded to the Representative Meeting.

Then adjourned to the usual time in 11th Month next at the rise of the Yearly Meeting on Ministry & Oversight.

At an adjourned session of Baltimore Quarterly Meeting of Friends held in Baltimore 11th Month 6th 1896.

The following report was received from the committee to consider the subject of the best times & places for holding our Quarterly Meetings, and directed to be forwarded to the Yearly Meeting for further consideration.

The committee appointed to consider the subject of changing the times of holding our Quarterly Meetings are united in recommending that no change be made in the time for holding the Quarterly Meeting in Baltimore City, but that when held elsewhere, the times be the same as they were before the change two years ago. The Committee also recommend that our Quarterly Meetings shall hereafter meet in joint session for the transaction of such business as should come before both mens' & womens' meetings, after which they may meet in separate session.

On behalf of the committee

Joseph P. Elliott
Margaret H. Elliott

George L. Stabler, A. Morris Carey and Ephraim Hopkins were added to the list of Representatives to the Yearly Meeting.

Then concluded

John C. Thomas
Clerk