

His sudden death at the age of 64, when we might reasonably have hoped that he would have many more years of usefulness, is a loss to our Meeting that is not easy to estimate. Our prayer is that we may be enabled still to go forward. The watchword for the Church is, "The Lord is forevermore the same." As generation after generation passes, His word to those who are coming forward is what it was to Joshua of old, "As I was with Moses, so will I be with thee. I will not fail thee nor forsake thee."

Then adjourned to the usual time in 11th month next.
John C. Thomas } Clerks

At an adjourned session of Baltimore Quarterly Meeting of Friends held at Baltimore 11th mo. 11th 1898.

The committee on the proposed change of time of holding the autumn Quarterly Meeting made the following report and the matter of changing the time of holding the autumn Quarterly Meeting was referred to the Yearly Meeting.
The proposition to change the time of holding the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry & Oversight in First month to 11³⁰ A.M. of the Seventh day on which the Quarterly Meeting is held, was agreed to
"To the Quarterly Meeting"

The committee on the proposed change
of the time of holding the autumn Quarterly Meeting report that they have not been able to come to a conclusion as to the date, and they suggest that the Yearly Meeting be asked to authorize the Quarterly Meeting to make such change as it may decide upon at its next session in First month next. The committee are agreed in proposing that the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry & Oversight in 1st month be held at 11³⁰ A.M. on the 7th day of the Quarterly Meeting.

On behalf of the committee

Das. Carey Jr.
Anna B. Thomas
John C. Thomas "

The committee to nominate a committee to arrange for holding conferences during the coming year, made the following report. The nominations were approved, & the remainder of the report was referred to the next Quarterly Meeting.

"The nominating committee on Conferences propose the following Friends, viz.
A. Morris Carey, Miles White Jr., Anna K.
Carey, John N. Parker, Anna B. Thomas,
S. Thornton Nicholls, L. Ella Hartshorne, Rachel J. Hopkins, J. Edw. Wetherald, & Lewis N. Hoge to form a standing committee for one year, to arrange (with the Friends residing where the Quarterly Meeting meets) for the holding of conferences, should way open for it.
We suggest that at the Quarterly Meeting held in 1st month in Baltimore, the conference, if held, should form an integral part of the Quarterly Meeting, which should adjourn & hold an evening