The nominating committee recommend the appointment of Howard M. Hoge and Sara H. Hoge as clerks, and Francis A. White and Lydia W. Haviland as assistants; these names are approved, and they are appointed accordingly.

A minute of Baltimore Monthly Meeting has been read, suggesting that the travelling expenses of the clerks of this meeting (when it is held away from their homes) be paid from our funds. This suggestion is approved, and the clerks are authorized to draw upon our Treasurer accordingly.

Samuel R. Neave, Arthur F. Lawrence, Anna B. Thomas and Annie W. Thompson are appointed to suggest plans to secure the needed funds for the use of the Quarterly Meeting, and to suggest a suitable sum to be raised annually, and to report in 6th month.

The 1st, 2nd and 10th queries were read, with the answers from the Monthly Meetings, and the following epilogue was adopted:

1. All our meetings for worship and discipline have been held, except one meeting for worship, omitted on account of snowstorm. Several reports mention some neglect of attendance on meetings for discipline. Some want of punctuality is reported. Unbecoming behavior is generally avoided.
