The committee to suggest plans to secure funds for the use of this Meeting, made the following report, which was approved.

"The committee appointed to suggest plans to secure the needed funds for the use of the Quarterly Meeting, recommend that hereafter, at First month Quarterly Meeting in each year, a committee be appointed to examine the Treasurer's account and report to the next Quarterly Meeting, and that they also recommend the sum to be raised for the use of the Meeting for the ensuing year. We do not recommend the raising of any additional amount this year.

Isaac Brooks Jr, having sent his resignation as Treasurer of this Meeting, Saml R. Neave, Allen L. Thomas, Edith M. Smith, & Thos. H. Levering were appointed to nominate to our next Quarterly Meeting, a Friend to act as Treasurer of this Meeting

The committee on Conferences made the following report, which was satisfactory:

"a conference was held, as arranged for, on 7th day evening, the 9th inst, at which the subject of "The Field at our Door" was considered. Two topics were presented: one by Ella L. Karts-horne, on the "Need & Call for Voluntary Workers" & the other by Saml. R. Neave, on "The Difficulties & Discouragements of the Voluntary Worker". A third topic on "The Privileges & Opportunities of the Voluntary Worker", was to have been presented by Howard M. Hoge, but he was prevented from coming by an accident. The conference was well attended, and felt to be an occasion of great interest.

On behalf of the committee

Saml. R. Neave
Mary W. Cook "
