

Washington { Lindley D. Clark, James E.
Underhill, Edw. C. Blair
Hosetta Blouens.

who were present except mine for the absence of some of whom reasons were given.

The committee appointed to propose the names of a committee to arrange for conferences at the times of the Quarterly Meetings during the year as the way may open reported - and the following friends were appointed, namely

John Nicholson, S. Edgar H. Richard
H. Thomas, S. Edgar Nicholson,
Augusta L. Mathews, Viola Horisberg
John R. Cary, Alfred P. Edge, Mary
W. Cook, Ebenezer W. Harland,
Louisa J. Brooke, Lindley D. Clark
Thos. H. Levering, J. Edw. Hetherald,
S. Thornton Nichols, Rebecca J.
Brown, Fred'k A. Cochran, Mary
Anna Suffitt.

The committee appointed to nominate two men and two women to serve this meeting as clerks and assistant clerks for the ensuing year proposed Howard M. Hoge & Francis White, Sara H. Hoge, and Lydia M. Harland, ^{as assistant clerks} who were acceptable to the meeting and they were accordingly appointed.

The committee appointed to examine the Treasurer's account not being ready to report was continued.

The Conference Committee submitted the following report which was acceptable to the meeting.

"The Quarterly Meeting Conference appointed to be held on the evening of the 13th at Hopewell was held; the subject considered was Bible Study.

Three addresses were given as follows, by Martha Bishop on the Importance of daily Bible Reading.

By Anna B. Thomas on Bible Study from a spiritual stand point.

By Allen C. Thomas on How to Study a Parable & an Epistle. The attendance