

school, and most of them schools under the care of Friends when practicable.

8th Ans. Most Friends are clear in regard to these matters.

9th Ans. As far as known Friends are careful in their business affairs as queried after, except that one report says more care is desirable.

10th Ans. When occasion arises, we endeavor to deal with offenders as queried after.

11th Ans. J. James Hunter recorded a minister 8th Mo. 8th 1901 by Baln. Monthly Meeting.

12. Ans. None.

The following Friends were appointed representatives to the Yearly Meeting viz.

John, C. Thomas, Richard H. Thomas, James Carey Jr., Mary M'Callough, Miles White Jr., Anna B. Thomas, Josephine Chilcoat, Fred. A. Cochran, Mary S. Cochran, J. John Jolliffe, Sarah J. Jolliffe, Elizabeth S. Morin, Alfred P. Edge, Saml R. Neare, Thomas Wetherald, Meritt M. Harland, Lydia W. Harland, Howard M. Hoge, Rebecca J. Brown, Sara H. Hoge, S. Thornton Nichols, James M. Hoge, Dora B. Clark, Lindley D. Clark, who were directed to report to our next meeting.

The necessity of greater effort against the war spirit and a clear setting forth of Christian principles on this subject took hold of the meeting and we commend to the Yearly Meeting the consideration of the best method of carrying out this concern.

The meeting then concluded.
