

Most of the meetings report engaging in such Christian work as may open for. One report makes special mention of its Christian Endeavor meetings held on Firstday evenings, of active interest in home & foreign missionary work and of aid sent to Blue Ridge Mission. Two meetings report most of the families belonging to their meetings are in the daily practice of collective Bible reading & prayer. One report says we believe there is an earnest concern for the upholding of the Truth & views as held by Friends. Answer to query 10, Rebecca M. Thomas was acknowledged a minister by Balt. M.M. 7th mo 10th 1902. None deceased or removed by certificate. Query 11. No meetings have been established or discontinued. Three meetings omitted, two of which were omitted on account of rain.

The following friends were appointed representatives. John Nicholson, Anna B. Thomas, Francis A. White, Amelia Featherstone, Martha W. Bishop, Frederick A. Eckman, Clara H. Smith, Chas. B. Thomas, Saml R. Meave, Agnes W. Meave, Roger Brock, Cornelia M. Shabler, Louisa T. Brock, Howard M. Hoge, Sara H. Hoge, Lindley B. Clark, James E. Underhill, Dora B. Clark & H. Virgil Easterling.

Francis A. White and H. Virgil Easterling were designated to represent this meeting on the Yearly Meetings Finance Committee.

Meetings then concluded.

Howard M. Hoge
Clerk.