

and the following summary directed forwarded to the Yearly Meeting. From reports made there is increasing spiritual life throughout the Quarterly Meeting. There seems to be a good attendance at meetings for worship, some also making mention of regular attendance of non members.

Most of the meetings are actively engaged in the various lines of Christian work. One meeting makes special mention of bearing testimony against war & the use of intoxicating liquor. Interest in the young people is spoken of in two reports. Some meetings report faithfulness of their members in regular family worship and one meeting definite effort to arouse its members on this subject.
