

comes through having regular family worship. Our Bible Schools continue to be a strong factor in the work of most of our meetings. The attendance, at most of our meetings, ^{for worship} is good, one encouraging feature being, the assembling with us of those who are not members. There seems to be an increased activity in the various lines of work taken up by our Yearly Meeting. One meeting speaks of the helpfulness of combining the social feature with the meetings for promoting interest in the work of the several committees. We note with pleasure the effort of friends to reach out to others beyond their own borders.

Answer to Query 10. Richard H. Thomas a minister of Baltimore

Monthly Meeting. deceased 10th Mo 3rd 1904

Answer to Query 11. No meetings have been established. The evening meeting at Silcott Springs. on the 2nd 1st day in each Mo has been discontinued. On account of sickness one meeting for worship was omitted from 1st Mo 1st to 7th Mo 1st. Five other meetings for worship and three for discipline are reported not held. The following friends were appointed representatives - Samuel R. Heave, John Nicholson, Anna D. Stabler, Agness Heave, Louisa T. Brook, Howard H. Hoge, J. Edward Vetterald, Monticai F. Hurd, Lindley D. Clark, Sara H. Hoge, Mary McCulloch, Martha W. Bishop, Emma Edge, Rebecca J. Brown, Charles Hearstom, Phoebe T. Underhill, Hannah M. Pope, Edward L. Palmer, who were