

most of the year. Some families are reported as having family devotions regularly, but there seems to be greater need for availing ourselves of this means of growth and some meetings feel a concern in this direction. A growth in grace & deepening of spiritual life are mentioned in several reports. One report says "the loss of some of our valued workers has seemed to bring home to our members the importance of each one contributing his or her part and there has been a greater participation in the work of the meeting than usual. Answer to Query

10 Robert B. Warden a minister of Washington Monthly Meeting, deceased 7th M<sup>c</sup> 23rd 1905. Rebecca M. Thomas a minister of Baltimore Monthly Meeting deceased 2nd M<sup>c</sup> 18th 1905. Answer to Query 11. The Local Business Meeting at Bendersville was discontinued, and the established meeting there was laid down 2nd M<sup>c</sup> 9th 1905. The 1st day evening meeting at Baltimore was laid down 12th M<sup>c</sup> 8th 1904. Two meetings for worship & two for discipline have been omitted.

The following friends were appointed representation and directed to report to our next meeting. John C. Thomas, Mary E. Hughes, Samuel R. Heave, Bertha E. Paucoast, Hannah R. Hopkins, Louisa H. Brooke, Mortimer T. Russell, W. (Marianne) Cary, Ella L. Heasthorn, Lindley D. Clark, L. Clark. Hoge, Martha St. Bishop, H. Virgil Easterling, Rachel M. Hopkins, and Ralph D. Hoge.

The following friends were designated to represent - this meeting on the Yearly Meetings Finance Com. e. g. H. Virgil Easterling, James M. Hoge.

A Memorial of our late friend Rebecca M. Thomas, a minister, was received and