

Charles G. Thomas, Hannah M. Pope, H. Virgil Eastling Anna B. Stabler, Richard J. White, were appointed to nominate to our next meeting friends to serve as Clerk & Assistant;

Comm.
Balto. No. 8.

The following communication was read from the meeting on Ministry & Oversight - after which the subject was further presented by Samuel R. Neave. To Balto.

Quarterly Meeting of Friends.

At Balto Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight, held the 19th & 1st Mo. 1907 in considering the subject of encouraging the work of our younger friends, & of promoting the interchange of visits among our meetings, a proposition has come before us that we ask the Quarterly Meeting to appoint three friends to look after the conditions in the meetings, and encourage the interchange of visits. The meeting directed the matter to be forwarded to the Quarterly

Meeting and appointed Samuel R. Neave to present the subject to that meeting. Taken from the minutes, Thomas

H. Loring Clerk for the day.

The meeting united with the concern and Samuel R. Neave, Thomas H. Loring, Margaret T. Carey, Francis W. White, and Anna B. Stabler, were appointed to retire and bring forward the names for a Com.

The Com. reported the following friends who were acceptable to the meeting and they were accordingly appointed to the above service and authorized to draw on the Treasurer for expenses incidental to carrying on the work. e. g. Samuel R. Neave, Henrietta M. Thomas, Margaret T. Carey, Viola Harrisburg & John R. Cary.*

The representatives to the Yearly Meeting were all in attendance.

The Treas. made the following report - which was acceptable to the meeting.
