

Young People's Unions are maintained by all of the meetings but two. The interest in them is good and they are attended and participated in by many not in membership with us. One meeting reports a mission ^{study} class maintained through the winter and much active work is done in all lines of Christian service throughout the Q. M. G. The reading of the Scriptures daily in the family is encouraged though it is desired the privilege is not prized to the extent its importance ~~demands~~ ^{deserves}. Good spiritual condition and development of spiritual gifts with increasing vocal service are noted in some reports. Ans. to Query 10. No ministers have been acknowledged or received by certificate and none have deceased or removed with certificate. Ans. to Query 11. No meetings established or discontinued - but the meeting at Silcott Springs remains suspended. Two meetings for worship and one for discipline omitted on account of rain. One meeting for worship omitted on account of absence of friends attending Yearly Meeting. The following friends were appointed representatives to the Yearly Meeting and directed to report to our next meeting, e. g. John R. Cary, John C. Thomas, Hannah M. Pope, Char. H. Hall, Mary E. Cary, Grace Lillian Stabler, Albert H. Volair, Samuel R. Heave, Wm. P. Withers, Lydia W. Harland, Henry J. Hoge, Ethel Stroud, Mary V. Smith, John D. Wright, Martha W. Bishop, Mildred Mason Smith, Lewis Clark Hoge
