

196

At Baltimore Quarterly Meeting held at Harlington, Maryland, 6th month-8-'08.

By reports from the meetings the following Friends were represented e.g.:

Baltimore — Chas. J. Cary, Elizabeth McCally, Elizabeth G. Price, Mary C. Davis, Ida M. Jones, John C. Thomas, A. Viola Horrisburg.

Hopewell —

Deer Creek — George L. Stabler, George P. Cook, Hannah R. Hopkins, Elizabeth Hopkins.

Patterson — Agnes W. Neave, Samuel R. Neave.

Ashton — Anna Heartshorn, Roger Brook.

Lincoln — Howard M. Hoge, Mary V. Smith, Sara H. Hoge.

Washington — Jennie E. Levering, Lindley B. Clark, who were present except 5 for the absence of 3 of whom reasons were given.

The Conference Committee made the following report which was acceptable to the meeting:

The Committee on Conference reports that the Young People's Societies of the Quarterly Meeting were invited to arrange for and hold a Conference at this time. It was held on 7th day evening the 6th and was a time of interest and power.

197

The subject of the Conference was, "How can the Young People's Meeting be made most helpful."

1. To Themselves.

2. To The Meeting.

3. To The Community at large.

Papers were read by Emily Barnard, Agnes Neave and Jennie Levering. These were followed by an interesting discussion opened by Lindley B. Clark and Henrietta M. Thomas.

Anna B. Thomas.

Elizabeth S. Thomas.

for Committee on Conferences.

The Visiting Committee made the following report which was acceptable to the meeting and they were authorized to arrange, if way opens, for a week-end general meeting at such time and place as seems best.

Report from the Committee to encourage the exchange of visits between our meetings.

To Baltimore Quarterly Meeting.

Since our last report, six visits