

H

5th ans, The necessities of the poor are inspected and relieved, and when occasion requires they are advised and assisted in such employments as they are capable of. & children to educate amongst us.

6th ans,

Most friends are careful to maintain a testimony against a hireling ministry. Clear in regard to oaths, military services, clandestine trade, prize goods, and lotteries.

7th ans,

We believe friends are careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances, and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage - and as far as appears they are just in their dealings, and punctual in complying with their engagements.

8th ans

Friends are careful to bear

5

testimony against Slavery, except in one instance, noticed in one of the reports of a friend, whose husband is not in membership with us. Those of the African race under their care are as far as we know suitably provided for, and, we believe, some care is taken to instruct them in useful learning.

9th ans

Care is taken to deal with offenders seasonably and impartially, and to evince to those who will not be reclaimed the spirit of meekness and love before they are disowned.

10th ans, none.

11th ans none.

12th ans,

We believe friends are careful, as far as practicable, to place their children for tuition under the care of suitable teachers in membership with us.