Answers to the Queries.

1st ans, All our meetings for worship and discipline have been held and attended by most of our members on first day mornings, and in the middle of the week. Our afternoon meetings continue small. The report from Hopewell states the omission of three meetings, on account of indisposition in families, and the severity of the weather. Unbecoming behaviour mostly avoided; and the hour of meeting nearly observed.

2nd ans, We believe friends generally maintain love towards each other becoming our Christian profession. Tale-bearing and detraction are mostly discouraged. No apparent differences.

3rd ans, Friends are mostly careful to deal with offenders according to the requisitions of the query.
