

The 1st 2nd and 9th queries with their answers have been read, and the following summary answers adopted, as describing our present state.

The friends appointed to consider of the names of two friends to serve this meeting as clerks, proposed the reappointment of Rachel Brooks for clerk, and Ann J. Matthews for assistant clerk, which is united with. R. Brooks is continued to the service the ensuing year. As J. Matthews not being present, her appointment is deferred to the next Quarterly Meeting.

A minute was read for our beloved friend Nathaniel C. Crenshaw, from Cedar Creek Monthly Meeting, Richmond, Va., liberating him to attend some meetings within the limits of Baltimore Quarterly Meeting, also to appoint some meetings, if way should open, amongst those who are not of our persuasion, which was acceptable to us.

The meeting ends. R. Brooks Clerk.

Answers to the Queries,
1st summary, ans,

All our meetings for worship and discipline have been held and attended by most of our members, on First day mornings, and the middle of the week, except 3 for worship, and 1 for discipline, noticed in the reports from Hopewell and Deer Creek which were omitted on account of the inclemency of the weather, and other difficulties.

Afternoon meetings are neglected by most of our members. Unbecoming behaviour generally avoided. All the reports state the hour of meeting is nearly observed except Baltimore, which mentions it is not observed by many friends.

2nd ans,

We believe friends are mostly careful to maintain love towards each other becoming our Christian profession. Talebearing and detraction appear to be discouraged, and we know of no differences
