

discipline have been held and attended by most of our members, except one in the middle of the week noticed in the report from Hopewell, for the omission of which a sufficient reason was assigned. Those on First day mornings and in the middle of the week are the usual size, the afternoon meetings held in the city continue to be small. Unbecoming behaviour generally avoided, and the hour of meeting nearly observed.

2nd ans,

We believe friends maintain love towards each other becoming our Christian profession. Tale-bearing and detraction are discouraged, and no apparent differences amongst us.

3rd ans,

Some friends endeavour by example and precept, to educate their children, and those under their care in plainness of speech, deportment, and apparel. We believe most friends are careful to guard their children against reading pernicious books, and from the corrupt conversation of the world, and to encourage them frequently to read the Holy Scriptures.

4th ans,

Our testimony against Spirituous liquors is maintained agreeable to discipline, also frequenting taverns, and attending places of diversion. Moderation and temperance is generally observed.

5th ans,

None requiring pecuniary aid; and no children to educate.

6th ans,

Friends are mostly careful to maintain a faithful testimony against a hiring ministry, clear with regard to the latter part of this query.
