

At Baltimore Quarterly meeting of women friends held Dec. 16th 1863 Reports were received from all the monthly meetings, by which it appears, the following named friends were appointed representatives. viz

Baltimore	Deer Creek
Margaret White,	Priscilla W Hopkins,
Matilda Reed,	Hannah B Hopkins,
Jacey C King,	Mary Wright,
Sarah C. Sprague,	Elleanor Holt.

who were present, excepting three friends, for the absence of one of whom a reason was given.

The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd queries were read and the following summary answers adopted, as nearly descriptive of our present state.

The friends appointed to bring forward the names of friends to serve this meeting, as clerk, and assistant, proposed the reappointment of Mary T Edge as clerk, & Mary W Thomas as assistant, which being approved, they are appointed to that service the coming year.

Epistles from our friends in London, and Dublin, to our yearly meeting were read, and the love, and sympathy, therein expressed, are felt to be very precious to us, at this time. The clerk is directed to hand them down to subordinate meetings. Then adjourned.

Mary T Edge
clerk
