

to have been caused, by the occupation of their meeting house by the military, and also by the interruptions occasioned by the frequent presence of an army in their midst. The afternoon meetings in the city still neglected by many. Unbecoming behaviour avoided. The hour of gathering not sufficiently observed by some.

2nd answer.

We believe friends maintain love to each other bearing our Christian profession, tabernacle and detraction generally discouraged. No apparent differences.

3rd answer.

Some friends endeavor by example and precept, to educate their children and those under their care, in plain-ness of speech, deportment, and apparel to guard them against reading pernicious books, and from the corruption of the world. But a more guarded care is evidently wanted among us. We believe most friends are careful to encourage the frequent reading of the Holy Scriptures.

4th answer.

We believe our testimony in regard to the several particulars of this query is in a good degree maintained.

5th answer.

The necessities of the poor are inspected, and relieved, no children to educate.

6th answer.

We believe most friends are careful to maintain a faithful testimony in regard to the several particulars of this query - our report mentions an exception, in an occasional attendance where a hiring minister officiates.

7th answer.

As far as appears friends are careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances - just in their dealings, and punctual in complying with their engagements.
