

detracted mostly discouraged, no apparent differences.

3rd Ans. Some friends endeavor by example and precept to educate their children and those under their care, in plainness of speech deportment and apparel, to guard them against reading pernicious books and from the corrupt conversation of the world, and they are encouraged frequently to read the Holy Scriptures, but one report from Deer Creek notices more care in these respects is desired.

4th Ans. Mostly clear as regards the first part of this query. Moderation observed by many friends and a good degree of temperance generally maintained.

5th Ans. The necessities of the poor are inspected and relieved. No children to educate.

8th Ans. Friends are careful to bear a testimony against Slavery. Those of the African race under their care are suitably provided for, and instructed in useful learning.

9th Ans. Care is mostly taken to deal with offenders, and to convince to those who will not be reclaimed the spirit of meekness and love before they are disowned.

10th Ans. None

11th Ans. None

12th Ans. Friends are careful as far as practicable to place their children for tuition under the charge of suitable teachers in membership with us.
